

Julia Nanay

Julia Nanay is a Director at PFC, where she provides clients with risk analyses for investments in the oil and gas industry, most recently concentrating on the Caspian region. Julia works closely with clients on identifying the political, economic and oil and gas sector risks in countries from the ground-up, with in-depth contacts inside many of the countries she has worked on. Julia's current work on the Caspian focuses on the oil and gas sectors of Azerbaijan, Georgia, Iran, Kazakhstan, Russia, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan and on the politics of these countries. She has worked in the oil industry in various capacities since 1976. Before joining PFC, she was a Vice President of The Charter Oil Company, a Jacksonville-based refining/marketing concern, heading their Washington office. Previous to that, she was the Executive Assistant to the Vice President for International of Northeast Petroleum Industries, Inc., a Boston-based independent marketer. She received a B.A. from the University of California at Los Angeles and an M.A.L.D from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University. Over the last five years, Julia has published many articles and spoken extensively at various public forums about the Caspian region.
